Background:

Kathy Spanier has more than 40 years of marketing experience, both in the consulting and corporate side of the business, working with a variety of organizations across a number of industries. She currently serves AOE as a strategic planning consultant. In addition, she serves as a Discussion Leader for the Anderson Center, a non-profit organization that provides management and leadership development services. Kathy's decade-long involvement with the Anderson Center as a Discussion Leader has involved teaching strategy and marketing to other businesses outside of the industry in learning forums.

Her professional career, for the most part, has been focused on business-to-business marketing for a variety of industries. The most recent leadership role, more than 15 years, was with a North American building product manufacturer serving the commercial construction industry to gain specification by the AEC community. Her main role as Director of Marketing was the development and execution of strategic marketing plans that targeted major segments of the AEC industry to grow market share.

Her Role at AOE:

Kathy currently serves AOE as a lead DEI and strategic planning consultant. She is skilled in the development of strategies using various organizational and marketing tools and processes to assist in the positioning and differentiation of an organization in a competitive environment.
